What we do
How does NSFCU protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does NSFCU collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you open an account, apply for a loan, make deposits/withdrawals, make a wire transfer, provide or show your driver's license or government-issued ID. We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only: sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness; affiliates from using your information to market to you; and sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you. State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing as well.
What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?	The primary account owner is the only person who can limit sharing and those choices apply to everyone on the account.

Definitions

Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
Nonaffiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. NSFCU currently utilizes TruStage/MEMBER Financial Services from CUNA for insurance and other financial products.
Joint Marketing	A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market products or services to you.
